FINANCIAL.

No. Fl. 5102—G. F. 673-10, dated 20*th April* 1911.

The Government of India Notification regarding the universalisation of Currency Notes of Rs. 100 is published hereunder for the information of the general public. One copy of the notification together with a Kanarese translation should be put up in some conspicuous place in every District Treasury and Taluk Treasury for the information of the public.

2. Officers in charge of District and Taluk Treasuries in Mysore should, in future, accept Government of India Hundred Rupee Notes of all circles, whether tendered in payment of Government dues or in settlement of other transactions at the Government Treasury; and they should be treated, irrespective of the circle of issue, in the same way as Home circle notes, as far as Treasury rules are concerned.

By Order,
J. S. CHAKRAVARTI,
Financial Secretary to Government.

Notice.

It is hereby notified for general information that Government Currency Notes of the denomination of rupees one hundred have, by the Government of India, Finance Department, Notification No. 2064-F., dated the 1st April 1911, been made universal like notes of the lower denominations. Notes of that denomination are therefore now legal tender throughout British India and are encashable at any office of issue in British India.

2 One hundred rupee notes in an altered form showing that they are universal will be issued in due course, but the above notification comes into force immediately notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the wording of the present form of notes. It applies also to all notes of this denomination which are already in circulation.

THE TREASURY, CALCUTTA,
1st April 1911.

R. W. GILLAN,
Comptroller-General.
